The background is a light cream or off-white color, heavily textured with various watercolor stains in shades of pink, rose, and light red. The stains are irregular and organic in shape, scattered across the page. A large, prominent stain is on the left side, and another large one is at the bottom. Smaller, more distinct stains are visible in the upper right and lower right areas.

The background features several watercolor splatters in shades of brown and tan. A large, irregular splatter is at the top center, with smaller, more circular ones scattered around it. At the bottom, there is a large, circular, swirling watercolor pattern that resembles a coffee stain or a decorative flourish.
